Trust is an about face and a walk with Jesus To be One with Him and saved by grace in Christ's Righteousness the Father sees us we belong to Him, as a brand new race peculiar people, holy nation royal priesthood, all welcomed in a different kind of incarnation a chosen generation, new life begin each saint different, but with one heart beating bought with a price and saved from sin a new creation now in Christ meeting best when we're humble and the World sees Him. -id

“I will build my Church.”

Christ said, “Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Teaching them to observe (do) all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the world. Amen.” Mt. 28:19-20

The church was never intended to be a building or a place as much as it was meant to be a people. Believers are people who have become new creatures in Christ. We are in Him, but He is also in us. We were not called to follow Him on Twitter, or “Like” Him on Facebook, but it is God’s will that we be like Him.

One thing for sure we are now closer to the “end of the world” than we ever were before. Another thing for sure is that while he bids us “go,” he promises to go “with us.” The Church is the Spirit-filled, universal “called-out Assembly.” The church is his body and when in harmony with Him, we are one. We are his hands, his feet, his heart of love beating within that body; and burdened for the lost, we lift our voice and His words. As John once said, that “He must increase and I must decrease,” so too, when we (the church) think less of ourselves, there is hope that the world will see more of Him in us. -id
